AMERICAN FORK
HIGH SCHOOL

What happens with the arrival of school?
Things become reality, lockers and books,
Teachers – homework that never quits.
People saying "Hi" to those they never knew.
Memories of a year gone by.

Minds and souls intertwined
To involve the youth.
Hearts full of pride
And humbleness.
Bodies bent
With burdensome responsibilities.
Love sweetened the bitterness of defeat
And expanded the joy of victory.
WE HAD GREAT LEADERS!

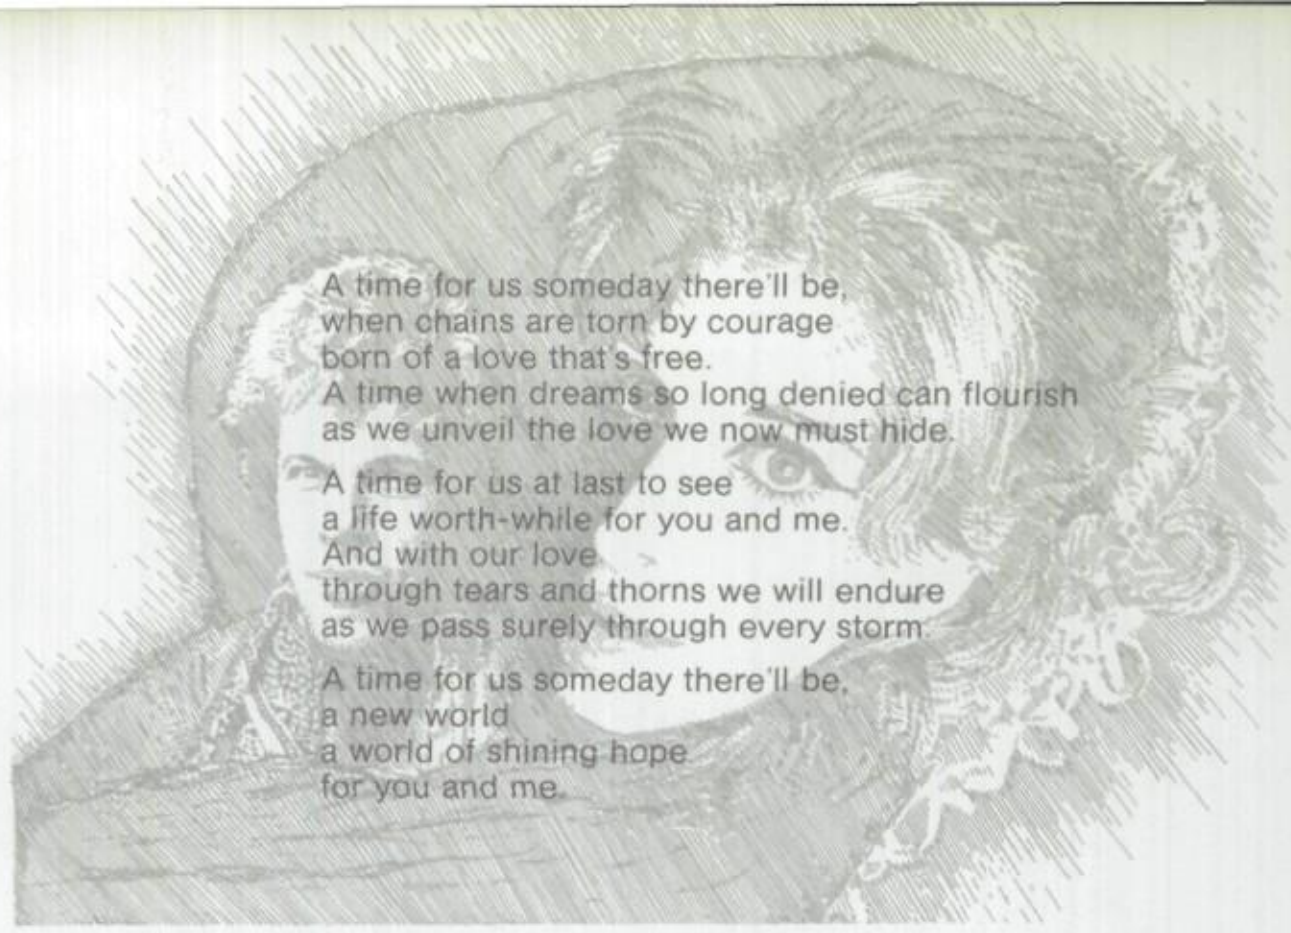
"A Time For Us"



A time for us someday there'll be,
when chains are torn by courage
born of a love that's free.
A time when dreams so long denied can flourish
as we unveil the love we now must hide.

A time for us at last to see a life worth-while for you and me.
And with our love
through tears and thorns we will endure
as we pass surely through every storm.

A time for us someday there'll be,
a new world
a world of shining hope
for you and me.

Cap and gown
A piece of paper in the hands of a student
Symbolic of study, toil, fun, friendship
The end—arriving too soon—
Though long awaited.
A student emerges from an institution
An individual;
He ponders on past experiences—
The excitement of winning
The agony of exams
The relief of Friday, 3:00.
Parties
Classmates
Teachers
The feeling of dancing close to someone;
Love
Memories of years
Beautiful pasts
Bright futures.
Ahead lies life.

Is a glimpse of the Junior Class,
The faces;
Some old,
Some new,
Some not seen in the halls now,
But all are remembered.

Here is captured
The many ideas of the Juniors,
Our fun,
Our moods,
Our thoughts,
But forever we are going forward
To meet the future.

Here before their eyes they see,
A campus new and strange.
From junior high they now are free,
To make the high school change.

Sophomore is the title,
To which they now are bound.
But this is just a little,
Of their ever building mound.

In the coming years,
This campus no more strange,
Grown from all their fears,
Their abilities have changed.

Is there anyone there? . . . One rap for yes . . . Two raps for no . . .
Now then . . . is there anyone there?

But you must be able to see her
She's there—look—right in front of you—there!

Why should having a cheese thing for lunch make
Me see my deceased wife after dinner?

At last—at last—A genuine materialization!
I could understand Elvira wanting to kill you—
But why me?

I need you, oh, my darling,
Like roses need rain.
You ask how long I'll love you,
I'll tell you true,
Until the twelfth of never,
I'll still be loving you.

HOW TO EAT A POEM

Don't be polite
Bite in.
Pick it up with your fingers and lick the juice that may run down your chin.
It is ready and ripe now, whenever you are.

You do not need a knife or fork or spoon
or plate or napkin or tablecloth.
For there is no core
or stem
or rind
or pit
or seed
or skin
to throw away.

PRINCIPAL BRADY

It has been a distinct pleasure serving as principal of this fine school. I have appreciated the co-operation and support that we have had. I realized quite early last fall that I had come to a very special school—one with a great history and with outstanding traditions. It has been a truly choice experience being associated with this studentbody and staff. I sincerely hope that the students who are returning next fall will dedicate themselves to the task of keeping American Fork High moving forward. My thanks to the seniors of the class of '70 for a job well-done.

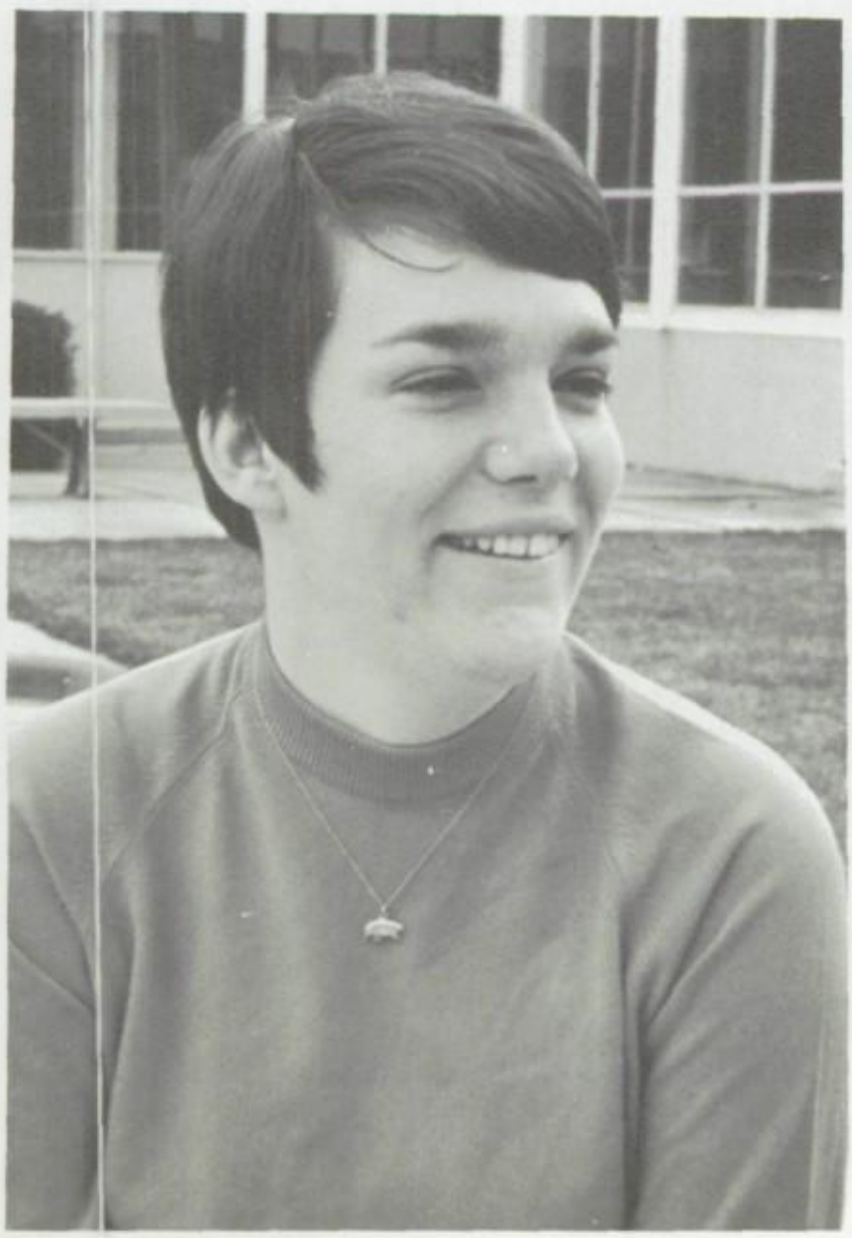
OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT



It has been a terrific experience to be able to spend the school year at American Fork High School. To participate in such a different educational system has been very interesting and stimulating.

What I have particularly enjoyed are the large variety of subjects you all can choose from and the rather more flexible method of teaching which enables the student to follow and develop his own interests. Extra-curricular activities are far more important than in South Africa, and I found this an enjoyable way to make friends and also to learn more about the school. Coming from an all girls' school of two-hundred fifty, I had thought it would be difficult to feel at home in a larger school, but students are so friendly, enthusiastic, and alive that this was never a problem. I particularly admire your school system in that everyone from all walks of life attends the same High School and thus has the same opportunities to gain an education. This is a very impressive example of American democracy.

I have been lucky enough to spend a year at American Fork High and not only learn a great deal about America, its school system and Americans, but also to make some good friends and to truly say, "I am a Caveman".

Baie Dankie,

Kathy Satchwell
